SOUTH COLUMBIA.

Mrs. Clarence Williams is here to spend several weeks with her parents, Mayor and Mrs. W. D. Cameron. Mr. Williams has accepted a position with the Birmingham Southern Railway at Birmingham, and they will in the future make their home there.

Moving seems to be the rage over this way now. Mr. Fayette Jones has moved to the Edwards house, and Fred James has gone into the house vacated by Mr. Jones. Bob Jones has moved to North Columbia, and Walter Smith occupies the house he left. Mr. William Bray has moved from school street to the country, so we have a number of vacant houses on hand.

Mr. Ed. Wilson and son Stanley, who have been visiting relatives here, left Monday morning for their home in Arkansas.

Walter Seaton and Miss Ada Bird attended the Chaffin Seaton marriage at Timmons Sunday. Mrs. Virginia Lockhart and Harry Chaffin, of Mt. Pleasant, were also among those who attended the nuptials.

The South Columbia Epworth League had its regular monthly literary meeting Monday night at the home of Mr. John H. Thomas.

"The Character of David," was the subject for the meeting, and the papers by Mrs. J. A. Molloy, on "David as a Christian," and by Miss Sadie Grimes, on "David as a Shepherd Boy," were very much enjoyed.

Mr. C. L. Dowell left Tuesday for Florence, Ala., on business.

Bentley Bullard had three of his fingers quite painfully mashed yesterday.

We have just received new line of designs for Monuments, and are prepared to give estimates and prices that will interest purchasers. We thank the public for patronage in the past and solicit your future business. We will give you figures that compete successfully with Nashville, Memphis or any other market.

Saturday Night's Storm.

Quite a severe wind and rain storm, accompanied by heavy lightning, passed through this section Saturday night. The wind blew furiously for a while, and the minds of many were filled with evil forebodings as they remembered the cyclone of last November and trembled with fear. The river and smaller streams were swollen a good deal, but no serious damages have been reported.

Dr. W. M. Biddle is having his residence on Ninth street repainted.

Charlotte, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Gartner, we regret to report, is sick with the croup.

Little Misses Cora Jacobs and Elizabeth McGaw, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. McGaw, Jr., are ill with scarlet fever.

Ninth street is rendered quite attractive these mornings by the little public school girls on the way with their books to the Athenaeum.

The Herald is prepared to do all kinds of job printing. Our work is first-class, and our prices are right. Give us a trial and be pleased.

Columbia Lodge No. 3, I. O. O. F., at its meeting Tuesday night initiated two candidates and gave one candidate the first degree and one the third.

Mr. W. B. Milam is spending several days in Nashville, recuperating from his recent illness. He will return to his work as chief train dispatcher in a few days.

A small wreck occurred Sunday morning at the "Y." Six cars of coal were derailed, and the "black diamonds" were scattered about promiscuously over a considerable territory.

Miss Elizabeth Shaub has accepted a position as stenographer and assistant bookkeeper for the Mississippi Valley Manufacturing Company. Miss Shaub is thoroughly competent, and this company is fortunate in securing her services. Columbia will regret to give her up.

Mr. S. E. Callendar, chairman of the business men's new depot committee, received a letter from Maj. Geddes yesterday, in which he stated that as soon as he received any definite information from the higher authorities he would make it known to the committee, and that he hoped matters would be arranged satisfactorily to all.

Knox Fleming, Jr., who has been with the Phoenix Bank for several years, has accepted a position with the First National Bank of Birmingham, Ala., and left yesterday to begin his new work. Knox is a polite, industrious young man, and his friends wish for him much success. Richard Wilkes of Culleoka, will take his place at the Phoenix.

Monday was the twenty-first birthday anniversary of Mr. Albert Spalding, one of the Herald's typographical artists. The occasion was appropriately celebrated by his brother printers, and when he returned from dinner he found his case adorned with numerous gifts, among the number being a sack of peanuts, a ham sandwich, a big stick of candy, a couple of abbreviated hose and a silk handkerchief. May he live to enjoy many such occasions.
